

monitoring, or assessing health services will be considered a breach of confidentiality.

- E. At no time shall staff or others associated with the SHC who have access to confidential information speak with media or others outside the SHC